

III. Her gift was an expression of her _____ _____ for Jesus and His work. Make yours the same.

We are seeking the Lord for what's NEXT in our pursuit of the mission of Jesus as a church. At the same time, we are personally seeking what's next in our own relationship with Jesus. Today we are looking at a sinful woman's intimate and radical gift to Jesus.

IV. Her gift was an intimate act of _____ - _____
of Jesus. Make yours the same.

I. Her gift was a response to the _____ she'd been given. Make yours the same.

II. Her gift was a reflection of the _____ of Jesus and His work. Make yours the same.

Growth Group Week 10 of 10

Questions for Contemplation & Discussion

Before jumping into the following questions, please read John 21:1-22 again to get reoriented to God's Word and this week's message.

1. Once more we see an "outsider" confidently approaching Jesus, while an "insider" pridefully and disdainfully looks on. What do you make of this?
2. Do you think our church is a safe place for "sinners"? How can we make it more so?
3. What was the motivation for this sinful woman's radical and passionate gift to Jesus? What is the motivation for your giving to our NEXT vision?
4. Can you think of anything that is worth more than Jesus and His work? Why then is it so hard to invest in the ongoing work of Jesus?
5. Do you connect your giving to your worship of Jesus? Why or why not?
