

Our Savior's Cry of Victory

Psalm 22:21-31

Easter Sunday, April 12, 2020

3. _____ for all who _____

Psalm 22 is not just the Psalm of the Cross, but also the Psalm of the Resurrection. More than 1000 years before the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, David prophetically saw the praise and promises of the Risen Christ. These 4 promises are ours today because JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN. HE IS RISEN INDEED!

4. _____ for all who _____

Even if you don't yet believe the resurrection of Jesus,
you should _____ to believe it,
because of what the resurrection _____ and _____.

1. _____ for all who _____

Growth Groups glue our church together, the way we find and follow Jesus together. If you are not involved in a Growth Group, now is the time to jump in at gracecentralcoast.org.

This year, our aim is to see our Growth Groups embody our 3-fold identity as followers of Jesus: Family, Servant, and Missionary. To that end, we're framing our Growth Group Interaction Guide to help groups move in that direction.

During the COVID-19 crisis our groups are meeting virtually using Zoom and other online platforms.

Connecting Together

Take some time to share how you're doing and how you're feeling as the Covid-19 crisis drags on.

Digging into God's Word & the Message Together

1. Read Psalm 22 together from the top. How did you come under God's Word in the text and message this week? How did God speak to you? What did you learn or what were you reminded of in this study?
2. How is Psalm 22 both the "Psalm of the Cross" and the "Psalm of the Resurrection." Where is the TURN in the text? How would you describe the tone of each half?
3. Looking at Psalm 22:21-31, in which verses do you see praise mentioned in one form or another?

4. Describe the best meal you've ever had or one of your favorite meals. Why is the eternal presence of God so often described as a feast or banquet? What does the image convey?
5. We were made for a Faithful Savior, a Forever Life, a Joyful Feast and an Unshakeable Kingdom. Do you agree or disagree with that statement? What evidence do you have to support your perspective?
6. Your Growth Group as a Family: In anticipation of the joyful feast that's coming, plan and pull off a virtual feast to share as a Growth Group. Everyone make their favorite meal. Then gather online and share why it's your favorite meal and feast together online!
7. Your Growth Group as a Servant/Missionary: These Resurrection Promises are meant to be shared. Where do you see that in the text of Psalm 22. How and with whom are you creatively sharing them in the Covid-19 season? Is there any way your group can team up to do that together? How about inviting some friends to your "joyful feast"?

Praying Together

- Humble yourselves before God.
- Praise God for these Resurrection Promises.
- Pray for friends who don't yet know Jesus and for one another.
