THINK IT OVER!

Sin's Judgment

The Gospel According to Genesis: Beginnings

Genesis 3:6-24

Sunday, March 29, 2009

1. Read Genesis 3 once more. What is the flow of the text? Where does Genesis 3 begin and where does it end?
2. How do man/woman together respond to their own sin?
3. How does God respond to the sin of humanity? Are His words descriptive of judgment or prescriptive of judgment? Or a combination of both? Are there any indications in the text?
4. What are the expressions of God's grace mingled in the midst of God's judgment?
5. Why is Genesis 3:15 so significant and enormous for understanding the book of Genesis and even the entire Bible?

1. What was new and most challenging for you in this week's text/message?
2. What are some ways that we respond to our sin in the same way as the first man and woman?
3. What are some ways we see the ongoing consequences of sin in the world today? Can we still see and feel the judgments of God operating today?
4. Who is the Promised Seed and what does it have to do with you and me?
