THINK IT OVER !

God of the Flood

The Gospel According to Genesis: Beginnings

Genesis 6:9-7:5

Sunday, May 17, 2009

1. Read Genesis 6:9-7:5. Who are the two characters in this drama? Is this text disturbing or unsettling to you like it is to most? If so, why?
2. How is the sovereignty of God shown in this text?
3. How is the justice of God shown in this text?
4. How is the grace of God shown in this text?
5. Was Noah saved because he was “a righteous man, blameless in his time” or because he believed? How does Hebrews 11:6-7 shine light on this issue? Why does this matter?

WORK IT OUT!

God of the Flood

The Gospel According to Genesis: Beginnings

Genesis 6:9-7:5

1. What was new and most challenging for you in this week's text/message?
2. What are some reasons why people deny or live apart from the God presented to us in the Bible?
3. How do people remake and reshape God, as He is presented to us in the Bible?
4. What does it mean to believe God and walk with God?
5. Though Noah is a terrific example of faith, why must we look beyond Noah to another? To whom shall we look? How does Christ, at the cross, both supercede Noah in his salvation work and also proclaim the character of God to us?
