

Abraham Breathed His Last

Genesis 25:1-11

The Gospel According to Genesis: The Life of Abraham

Sunday, August 1, 2010

Abraham Breathed His Last

Genesis 25:1-11

The Gospel According to Genesis: The Life of Abraham

Sunday, August 1, 2010

III. Rebekah's Faith in Action

- She is kind and hospitable to a stranger.
- She recognizes the call of God on her life.
- She is willing to leave the familiarity of her place, people and comfort for a long journey into the unknown.

3 Take-Away Challenges for us . . .

1. Trust the Lord in every little and big area of your life, while you act.
2. Recognize the value and priority of marriage.
3. Reflect upon the Lord's faithful providence in your life.

I. Abraham's Faith in Action

- He acknowledges the Lord when faced with this need.
- He obeys the Lord in what he knows.
- He acts by faith in what he doesn't know, believing God will work.
- He leaves room for the Lord not to work.

II. A Servant's Faith in Action

- He obeys the authority in his life, embarking on his own journey of faith.
- He boldly asks the Lord to act through his circumstances.
- He is wise, focused and compelling in his relationship with the Rebekah's family.
- He gives the Lord the glory for all things and every step of the way.